JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS.

The Eighty-sixth Annual Convention of the Diocese of North Carolina was held in St. Stephen's Church, Oxford, on Wednesday, June 11th, being the Feast of St. Barnabas, A. D. 1902.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock A. M. by the Rt. Rev. Joseph Blount Cheshire, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese.

The roll having been called by the Secretary, a quorum of both orders was found to be present, and, on motion, a recess was taken for Divine Service.

At 11:30 o'clock the Bishop of the Diocese consecrated St. Stephen's Church, Oxford, the instrument of donation and request to consecrate being read by Mr. John G. Hall, Senior Warden of the Parish, and the Sentence of Consecration by the Rev. A. B. Hunter.

The Litany was said by the Rev. Charles Fetter.

The Bishop then proceeded with the service, being assisted in the Holy Communion by the Rev. M. M. Marshall, D.D. and the Rev. R. B. Owens, Rector of the Parish.

The sermon was preached by the Rev. F. J. Murdoch, D.D., from the text: "See now, I dwell in an house of cedar, but the ark of God dwelleth within curtains." II Samuel VII, 2.

The offerings of the congregation were received for the New York Bible and Common Prayer Book Society.

At the conclusion of Divine Service, the chair was taken by the Bishop.

On the nomination of Mr. R. H. Battle, the Rev. M. M. Marshall, D.D., was elected President, the Secretary being instructed to cast the ballot of the Convention. The Rev. Julian E. Ingle being nominated as Secretary, the Chairman was requested to cast the ballot of the Convention for him, and declared him elected.

The Secretary announced the appointment of Mr. Maurice J. O'Neil of Henderson, as Assistant Secretary.

On motion of the Rev. R. B. Owens, it was Resolved, That the daily sessions of the Convention begin with Morning Prayer at 9 o'clock, and continue until 5:30 P. M., with a recess from 12:30 to 3:30 o'clock.

On motion of the same, the recess for this day only was extended to 4:15 o'clock.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Marshall, the Secretary was instructed to send to the Convention of the Missionary District of Asheville, sitting in the Church of the Ascension at Hickory, the loving greetings of the Convention.

On motion, a recess was then taken.

WEDNESDAY, June 11, 4:15 P. M.

The Convention was called to order by the Bishop, who announced the appointment of the Regular Committees as follows:

On Canons:

The Rev. Francis W. Hilliard.

The Rev. Edwin A. Osborne.

The Rev. Robert B. Owens.

Mr. R. H. Battle, LL. D.

Mr. John S. Henderson.

On the State of the Church:

The Rev. Sidney S. Bost.

The Rev. Louis H. Schubert.

The Rev. John H. M. Pollard.

Mr. B. A. Southerland.

Mr. William L. Wall.

On Finance:

The Rev. I. McK. Pittenger, D.D.

The Rev. Henry T. Gregory.

Mr. Jos. B. Batchelor, LL. D.

Mr. William L. London.

Mr. Paul C. Graham.

On Elections :

The Rev. J. Taylor Chambers.
The Rev. Clarence C. Leman.

Mr. Wm. M. Martin, M.D.
Mr. Theodore Buerbaum.
Mr. Edward G. Muse.

On New Parishes :

The Rev. S. Paxson Watters.
The Rev. Primus P. Alston.

Mr. John G. Hall.
Mr. Samuel R. Harrison.
Mr. John W. Graham.

On Unfinished Business :

The Rev. Sanders R. Guignard.
The Rev. Francis Joyner.

Mr. A. C. Zollicoffer.
Mr. W. Perry Neal.
Mr. John Royster.

The Rev. Dr. Marshall presented the following

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE.

The Standing Committee, elected by the last Convention, met for organization on the 27th day of June, 1901, at Christ Church Rectory in the City of Raleigh. The Rev. M. M. Marshall, D.D., was elected President, and the Rev. Julian E. Ingle, Secretary.

At this meeting the Committee gave consent to the consecration of the Rev. Frederick William Taylor, D.D., as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Quincy, and to the election of the Rt. Rev. Samuel Cook Edsall, D.D., Bishop of the Missionary District of North Dakota, as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Minnesota.

On the 15th day of July, 1901, at the request of the Rev. R. B. Owens, Rector of the parish concerned, and in response to a communication from the Bishop of the Diocese asking the advice of the Committee in the premises, it was “ Resolved, That the consent of the Standing Committee be and the same is given for the taking down and selling of the old church building of St. Stephen's Parish, Oxford.”

It was further

“ Resolved, That the action of the Bishop in consenting to the removal and sale of the old church building belonging to St. Paul's parish, Louisville, is approved and confirmed.”

On the 15th day of August, 1901, William Edward Callender, of St. Peter's parish, Charlotte, was recommended to be received as a candidate for Holy Orders.

On the 10th day of September, 1901, Richard Louis Bame was recommended to be ordered Deacon at any time after the 31st day of September, 1901, and the application of the Rev. James E. King, Deacon, for a dispensation from the knowledge of Latin and Greek in order to his admission as a candidate for Priest's Orders, was, for satisfactory reasons, recommended to be granted, although in the judgment of the Committee, this case should not be used as a precedent for lowering, in any degree, the Canonical requirements for admission to the Priesthood.

On the 21st of November, 1901, the Committee recommended Alfred Rives Berkley to be received as a candidate for Holy Orders.

On the 13th day of December, 1901, the Committee gave consent to the consecration of the Rev. Frederick Burgess, D.D., Rector of Grace Church, Brooklyn, as Bishop of Long Island.

On the 22nd day of February, 1902, the Committee gave consent to the consecration of the following Bishops elect:

The Rev. Charles Sanford Olmsted, D.D., Rector of St. Asaph's Church, Bala, Pennsylvania, as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Colorado; the Rev. Alexander Hamilton Vinton, D.D., Rector of All Saints' Church, Worcester, Massachusetts, as Bishop of Western Massachusetts, and the Rev. Alexander Mackay Smith, D.D., Rector of St. John's Church, Washington, D. C., as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Robert Nathanael Perry was also recommended to be received as a candidate for Holy Orders.

On the 7th day of May, 1902, a communication was received from the Bishop of the Diocese, notifying the Committee that he had, on the 22nd day of February, 1902, passed Robert Nathanael Perry from the list of candidates for Deacon's Orders to that for Priest's Orders.

At this meeting, also, the Committee gave consent to the consecration of the Rev. Henry Bond Restarick, as Missionary Bishop of Honolulu, and to the consecration of the Rev. James Heartt Van Buren, as Missionary Bishop of Porto Rico.

The Committee requested the President to prepare and present to the Diocesan Convention a report of the proceedings for the past year, and adjourned. Respectfully submitted,

M. M. MARSHALL,
President.

Mr. Richard H. Battle presented the following

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE DIOCESE.

The Trustees to Hold Property for the Diocese respectfully report:

1. Since the last Annual Convention they have received but one deed for property, to-wit, a deed to the Trustees for three-fourths of an acre, in Stokes County, on the Rockingham County line, on which there is a log chapel—from Charles R. Wall and Annie C. Wall his wife, dated November 22, 1901.

2. A. J. Lyman, one of the executors of the Rt. Rev. Theodore B. Lyman, who, with his co-executor Mrs. Susan B. Lyman, was authorized by the will of Bishop Lyman to sell two small houses and lots in the City of Winston and turn over the proceeds to the Permanent Episcopal Fund, has recently notified the Trustees that they have been offered two thousand dollars ($2,000) for the property, and that, from the information he has, he thinks it best to sell at that price. In view of the fact that after paying the expense of insurance and repairs, the income from the notes has been much less than the interest on $2,000; and, as the result of some correspondence on the subject, the Trustees have consented to a sale at the price stated, unless the proposed purchaser will pay enough in addition to make the property net $2,000 to the Diocese. It is hoped that the sale will soon be effected and the money realized.

3. Some time ago Alexander B. Galloway, late of the town of Elkin, died, leaving a will whereby his property was given to his wife Mrs. Laura P. Galloway for life, with a provision that she should be “untramelled in the use and enjoyment of the same,” and at her death one-third of what remained should go to A. B. Galloway, Jr., of Tennessee, and one-third to the Church in this Diocese. Part of the testator’s real property is yielding but little profit; and in the belief that she had power, under the will, to do so, she sold a small lot in Elkin—25 by 100 feet—to the Trustees of the Elkin Baptist Church for $162.50. But a doubt having arisen as to the title conveyed, Mr. A. B. Galloway, Jr., and the Trustees of the Diocese have been requested by Mrs. Galloway to execute a deed of release and quitclaim for the lot. Mr. Galloway has done so, and, under the circumstances, the Trustees recommend that they be permitted and instructed to join in the deed. A friend and connection of Mrs. Galloway’s, who is also an active member of the Church, has requested, in her interest, that other unproductive property be sold, and that the Diocese take its third of the proceeds and secure to Mrs. Galloway the interest on it during her life. The Trustees cannot recommend this action, because the Diocese, through its Trustees, would thus become trustee for an individual, a relation it is not contemplated it should assume; but the Trustees might be empowered, by resolution, to consent to, and unite in sales of unproductive property, in cases where it shall be made to appear to them that it is to the interest of the Diocese, as well as of Mrs. Galloway, to sell, and provided the proceeds shall be reinvested, and the substituted investments held on the terms and conditions now attaching to the property embraced in the will.

Respectfully submitted,

JOS. BLOUNT CHESHIRE,

CHAS. E. JOHNSON,

R. H. BATTLE,

Trustees etc.

The report was, on motion, referred to a special Committee of three to be appointed by the Chair.

The Chair appointed as members of this Committee, the Rev. E. W. Gamble, Mr. H. A. London and Mr. A. C. Zollicoffer.

Dr. Kemp P. Battle presented the following statement, which was, on motion, referred to the same Committee :

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., June 6, 1902.

Rt. Rev. J. B. CHESHIRE, D.D., Chairman.

My Dear Sir :—I enclose copy of the Certificate of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Orange County showing my final settlement of the estate of Miss Mary Ruffin Smith, so far as concerns the personalty, the land devised to the two Dioceses having long ago been turned over to them.

The settlement shows that, after paying all expenses and specific legacies, I paid to the two Dioceses, as residuary legatees, $13,718, or $6,859 to each.

In justification of the long delay of the final settlement, I wish to state that, according to my own judgment, and that of many intelligent neighbors, much loss to the Church, and suffering to the mortgage debtors of the estate, would have ensued if I had enforced speedy payments. In accordance with the wishes of Miss Smith, verbally expressed to me not long before her death, and with the approval of the Trustees of the two Dioceses, I gave time to the debtors, and so succeeded in my collections much better than was possible otherwise.

Respectfully submitted,

KEMP P. BATTLE,

Executor.

[Accompanying the above report was the copy of the Certificate of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Orange County, referred to by Mr. Battle.—Secretary.]

Mr. Kemp P. Battle presented the following report :

The undersigned Commissioners for the sale and management of the land devised to the Dioceses of North and East Carolina by Miss Mary R. Smith, respectfully report :

That they have offered the land, in the whole and in parcels, at public auction and private sale, and they regret to say that no offer has been obtained which they considered reasonable. Owing to repeated partial failure of crops there has been stagnation in the real estate market in this part of the State.

The land is under the supervision of a good agent, Mr. W. C. Cole, and the net rents, and payments on parcels heretofore sold, have been paid over to the Treasurers of the Dioceses as fast as collected.

KEMP P. BATTLE,
H. A. LONDON,
Commissioners.

The Treasurer of the Convention presented his Annual Report. (See Appendix C.).

On behalf of the Rev. Dr. Pittenger, the Rev. A. B. Huuter presented the following REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

I have this day examined the accounts of Mr. Charles E. Johnson, Treasurer of the Diocese. I find that the Bank books show a balance on hand that corresponds with the statements in his report, and that the securities named are all in his possession.

I. McK. PITTENGER,
Raleigh, N. C., May 19, 1902. Chairman.

The Rev. Clarence C. Leman presented the following

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE THOMPSON ORPHANAGE AND TRAINING INSTITUTION.

The sixteenth annual meeting of the Board of Managers of the Thompson Orphanage and Training Institution was held at the Institution the 25th of April, 1902, the Bishop of North Carolina in the chair.

At this meeting the Rev. C. C. Leman, member of the Executive Committee, was invited to be present and was requested to make the annual report for the Board.

It is gratifying to the friends of this work to witness the very efficient manner in which this institution is carrying out the purposes of its creation and supplying a home with physical, mental and spiritual conditions for those who would be otherwise destitute of some or all such privileges. As far as its equipment permits, it is abreast of any institution of the kind.

The health of the children is, and has been, marvelously good during the past year. When the city, and we might say the country, was apparently confronted by an epidemic of scarlet fever, there were a score or more of the children infected; out of this number a very few developed cases, and these were of the prevailing light type. The general cleanliness, simple wholesome diet, wise arrangement of hours for duties, exercises and recreations, and firm yet gentle control, are manifest in the general air of orderliness and contentment observable to the visitor.

The Board congratulates itself on retaining the services of Dr. C. H. C. Mills, who is faithfully ministering to its needs in the position of attending physician.

We find that there are at present sixty-seven children in the Institution; forty-four of these occupy the Thompson Hall, under the government of Mrs. C. J. Pierce, temporary matron, and twenty-three are at Bronson Hall, with Miss Capeheart.

The Auditing Committee reports that it has found the Superintendent's accounts correct and properly kept.

As will be seen from the appended report of the Superintendent, the immediate pressing needs of the institution are:

- (1) Improved bathing facilities.
- (2) A larger corn crib.
- (3) A room for sewing department.
- (4) Tools for the shoe and carpenter shops.
- (5) Contributions during the summer months, when these usually fall off.

It is proposed by the Board to fit up and use the present storeroom in Thompson Hall as a lavatory, and erect a frame building as a storeroom and office, as soon as a sufficient sum of money can be obtained for the purpose. We trust that the friends of the Institution will enable us soon to carry out this plan.

At present there is no proper sewing-room. Could an addition be built to Thompson Hall for an infirmary, the present infirmary could be so used, and would be better adapted for that purpose.

We are gratified that we are able to report the increase of the endowment to about six thousand dollars. It is hoped that eventually the endowment will be sufficient to pay all salaries, so that all contributions may go directly to the support of the beneficiaries of the Institution.

The increased subscription list of the Messenger of Hope leads us to believe it will soon be more than self-sustaining, while it continues to keep the Institution before the minds of the Churchmen of the State and elsewhere.

Respectfully submitted,

C. C. LEMAN,
For the Board of Managers.

REPORT OF REV. W. J. SMITH, SUPERINTENDENT OF THE THOMPSON
ORPHANAGE AND TRAINING INSTITUTION.

To the Board of Managers, Greeting :

It is with great pleasure that I report to you that the Institution, both financially and physically, is in a healthy condition.

During the year we were visited by scarlet fever, but under the skilful management of our physician, only four cases developed, and they all recovered without any bad after effects. The other cases of sickness were not of a serious nature, and now there is not a single case to report.

At the beginning of the present fiscal year, Dr. Charles H. C. Mills was elected to succeed Dr. Crowell as physician, and he has cheerfully given the children prompt and efficient attention.

While it is true that during the year our Bank account was overdrawn more than once, we have closed the year free of debt, and with a balance to our credit of more than seven hundred dollars. If the amount were larger by several hundred more, I would feel easier; for I know only too well from past experience what to expect during the dull months of summer. This observation is thrown out as a hint to our friends to make a little extra effort in our behalf between now and Thanksgiving Day.

During the past year more than two hundred dollars have been expended in repairs and improvements, of which amount fifty dollars were given by St. Agnes' Guild of Christ Church, Raleigh, for improvements in Bronson Hall; fifty-three dollars were paid for painting the roof and exterior wood work of the chapel; something over fifteen dollars for fire extinguishers, and the balance for the carpenter shop, and various other minor wants.

A comparison of last year's report with this will show that the receipts have fallen short nearly two hundred dollars, while the farm products sold are almost the same, and the receipts for the Messenger of Hope are over a hundred dollars more than last year. But for the bad weather and the delay in getting passage over the railways, our agent, doubtless, would have done much better for the paper.

Having been offered another position, Miss M. A. Whitaker resigned her place as agent, and was succeeded by her sister Miss S. M. Whitaker, who promises to do a good work for the cause when she can once get fairly started.

As stated above, the farm received about the same as last year, but paid out several hundred dollars more, owing to the repairs and improvements made, and to the excessive rains of the early summer.

In September last Miss Lily Thomas of Williamsboro took charge of the sewing department, and has remained faithfully at her post, with the exception of about a month when she had charge of the infirmary of Thompson Hall. Miss White and Miss Essie Call have had charge of the two departments of the school, and have given the same faithful service as in the past. Up to the first of March Miss Mackay remained in charge of Thompson Hall, and Miss Capehart of Bronson Hall, doing day after day work which can be only partially understood and appreciated by those who have never tried it. For some time past a movement has been on foot to establish a Home for Working Girls in the City of Charlotte, and when the ladies in charge of the matter finally consummated their plans, they offered the position as matron to Miss Mackay, and the offer was accepted, to take effect the first of March. Miss Mackay had long felt an interest in some such work, and after having given fifteen years of faithful service to the Orphanage, it was perhaps well and wise that she should lay it aside for a less arduous position. To her energy and good management in the early days of the Orphanage, is due in a large measure its present success. Since Miss Mackay's departure Mrs. C. J. Pierce, at one time a teacher in the Orphanage, has, for the most part, had charge of Thompson Hall, having accepted the position temporarily, until Miss Carroll, the present mission teacher at Euto, can assume charge as matron.

It should be stated here that Miss Capeheart was offered the position as matron of Thompson Hall, but she preferred to remain in her present position as matron of Bronson Hall.

During the past year we have received into the Orphanage twenty-three children, one of whom had been with us before, nineteen from the Diocese of North Carolina, three from East Carolina, and one from the District of Asheville. The disparity in these numbers was not mentioned, for each application is considered upon its own merits, and the question as to which locality the child is from is never entertained.

Four of the children have been provided with homes, five have returned to their former homes, four who were with us temporarily during the vacation, have returned to their father, one is now staying with a family in Raleigh, and one has died. We reported fifty-nine last year. The present number is sixty-seven—thirty-nine from the Diocese of North Carolina (three having been transferred from North Carolina), eighteen from the Diocese of East Carolina, and ten from the District of Asheville.

We now have a shoe shop and a carpenter shop ready for use, but they have not been furnished with proper tools. We still need a larger corn crib, a suitable room for the sewing department, and better bathing facilities. We have $120 on hand toward the bath tubs, but feel that it would be unwise to use it till we can get a sufficient amount to do the whole work.

The lease of the brick yard expired with the last year, and a new lease has been made for the present year at $300 per annum, and 30 cents per hundred on all over a million brick.

In closing this report I wish to express my sincere thanks to all of our friends everywhere for the continued manifestation of their interest in our work, especially to those in the City of Charlotte, both private and professional. The list is too long to mention names, but I do want to thank the Standard Ice and Fuel Co. for the gratifying supply of ice during the hot weather. I would also mention my deep appreciation of the continued courtesies of the railroads and the Southern Express Co.

I herewith append a statement of account for the past year:

W. J. SMITH, Treasurer, In account with the Thompson Orphanage and Training Institution, from April 1st, 1901, to March 31st, 1902.

Respectfully submitted,

W. J. SMITH,
Superintendent.

The report was referred to a Special Committee consisting of the Rev. Messrs. E. A. Osborne and F. W. Hilliard, and Messrs. Wm. A. Smith, Paul C. Graham and Wm. L. Wall.

The Rev. Mr. Leman also presented the reports of St. Peter's Hospital and the Hospital of the Good Samaritan, Charlotte, which were, on his motion, referred to the Committee on the State of the Church. (See Appendix B.)

The Bishop made the following statement in regard to the Relief Fund of the Diocese, and it was, on motion, referred to the same Committee :

THE RELIEF FUND.

The Bishop calls the attention of the Convention to so much of the Treasurer's report as relates to the Relief Fund. It there appears that twenty-nine parishes and missions contributed during the year ninety-nine dollars and ninety-six cents ($99.96). This, with the small balance on hand at the end of the year, would enable the Bishop to pay to one aged and disabled clergyman one hundred dollars during the year. This was a most inadequate amount even for the one beneficiary, and we must all agree that if this Fund is to accomplish anything commensurate with our duty in such cases, our clergy and people must give it a more general and a more generous support.

Respectfully submitted,

JOS. BLOUNT CHESHIRE,
Bishop.

[Appended to the above report was a list of congregations contributing to the Relief Fund, with the several amounts contributed, as they appear in the Report of the Treasurer.—Secretary.]

Upon invitation of the Convention an address on St. Mary's School was made by the Rector, the Rev. T. D. Bratton, D.D.

The Rev. Sidney S. Bost presented the following

REPORT OF THE EDUCATION COMMITTEE.

The Education Committee respectfully report that during the past year, as appears by the tabulated statement of the Treasurer, twenty-eight parishes and missions only, out of the ninety-four upon our list, have contributed to the Education Fund the sum of one hundred and two dollars and seven cents ($102.07). The greater part of this came in, as your Committee understand, at the latter part of the year, so that practically the Committee during the past year has been unable to afford any assistance whatever to those candidates and postulants who have needed their help. The only thing the Bishop could do under the circumstances was to appeal to individuals in behalf of this cause, and by the generous assistance of a few individuals, he was able to give assistance to two excellent young men pursuing their preparation for the Holy Ministry. But your Committee beg to call the attention of all members of the Convention to the requirement of the Canon that on the first Sunday in March, or upon some other Sunday in the same month appointed by the minister, a collection shall be taken in all our Churches for this Fund. If all our clergy would remember and observe this regulation, your Committee feel sure that the people of the Diocese would not be wanting in their duty to this Fund upon which many of our candidates and postulants must depend for aid during their preparation.

Respectfully submitted,

JOS. BLOUNT CHESHIRE,
S. S. BOST.

The report was, on motion, referred to the Committee on the State of the Church.

The Secretary presented a communication from the Secretary of the General Convention in regard to proposed changes in the Constitution of the same, which was, on motion, referred to the Committee on Canons.

On motion, the Convention then adjourned.

After Evening Prayer at 8:30 o'clock by the Rev. C. C. Le-man, the Bishop reading the Lessons, a sermon was preached by the Rev. S. S. Bost.

SECOND DAY.

ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH, OXFORD,
THURSDAY, June 12, 1902.

The Convention assembled at 9 o'clock.

Morning Prayer was said by the Rev. Messrs. Sanders R. Guignard and Walter J. Smith.

At the conclusion of the service, in the absence of the Bishop and the President, the Secretary called the Convention to order.

On motion of Mr. Wm. L. London, the Rev. Dr. Murdoch was called to the chair.

The calling of the roll was, on motion, dispensed with. The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The Rev. S. R. Guignard presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The Committee beg leg to report a resolution offered by the Committee on Canons to amend Chapter III, Canon VIII, by the addition of a 4th Section, together with amendment to the same as found on page 49 of the Journal of 1901.

SANDERS R. GUIGNARD,
Chairman.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Marshall, the following resolutions were adopted :

Resolved, That we are in favor of establishing at Washington, D. C., a laboratory for the study of the criminal, pauper and defective classes, it being understood that such investigation is a development of work already begun under the Federal Government. That such study shall include the collection of sociological and pathological data in hospitals, schools and other institutions; that especially the causes of social evils shall be sought out with a view to their amelioration or prevention.

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to communicate this action of the Convention to the United States Bureau of Education at Washington, D. C.

Mr. R. H. Battle offered the following resolutions which were adopted :

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that a Reformatory for youthful criminals should be established in this State without unnecessary delay.

Resolved, That the Secretary of this Convention, on the meeting of the next session of the General Assembly, transmit a copy of this resolution to the presiding officers of the two Houses as a memorial from this Convention.

Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed by the chair to present and urge this subject before the proper Committees of the two Houses.

The President appeared and took the chair.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Murdoch, it was Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed to consider the subject of Sunday Schools, which Committee may report from time to time to this Convention and shall report to the next Convention.

The Rev. E. A. Osborne offered the following resolution, which, on his motion, was referred to the Committee called for by the resolution of the Rev. Dr. Murdoch :

Resolved, That a Secretary of Sunday School work be annually elected by the Convention, whose duty it shall be to unify and stimulate the Sunday School work of the Diocese.

On motion of the Rev. E. W. Gamble, the following resolutions were referred to the same Committee :

Resolved, 1st, That a Committee of three clergymen be annually appointed by the Bishop, to be known as The Sunday School Publishing Committee, whose duty it shall be to prepare and publish a uniform course of Sunday School instruction, based upon what is known as the Trinity Course of Church Instruction, and that this system be recommended to the clergy of this Diocese in their respective Sunday Schools.

2nd, That it be recommended to the presiding officers of the several Church Schools in the Diocese that there be included in their several curricula a course of instruction in the Old and New Testaments and Church History that will be compulsory in order to graduation.

The Bishop took the chair and read his Annual Address. (See Appendix A.)

On motion of the Rev. F. W. Hilliard, so much of the Bishop's Address as related to the death of the Rev. George Patterson, D.D., was referred to a Special Committee to report to this Convention. The Bishop appointed as members of the Committee the Rev. F. W. Hilliard, the Rev. Dr. Murdoch and Mr. Chas. M. Busbee.

On motion of Mr. R. H. Battle, the whole address was referred to the Committee on the State of the Church.

Mr. Charles E. Johnson presented the following

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF ST. MARY'S SCHOOL.

The undersigned President of the Board of Trustees of St. Mary's School, Raleigh, in behalf of said Board begs leave to present to this Convention the following Report in compliance with the terms of the act of incorporation.

The report of the Treasurer to the late annual meeting of the Board showed total receipts of the corporation amounting to $7,250.63. Of this amount $4,000 was paid upon the principal of the debt incurred in the purchase of the property, $1,812.70 interest on the debt, $440 salary and expenses of Mrs. Iredell, the Agent of the School and of the Trustees, $121.27 in settlement with the Rev. Mr. Pruden, Special Financial Agent, $180 for gold and silver medals for the patrons and daughters of St. Mary's, and $139.55 necessary office expenses, leaving a balance on hand of $457.11.

The payment of $4,000 on the principal of the debt reduces it to $25,000. There are in the hands of the Treasurer notes and subscriptions to an amount something over $7,000. It is hoped that enough will eventually be realized from these assets to reduce the debt to $20,000. When reduced to this amount, the Trustees have an offer of the money at four per cent. annual interest.

When we come to examine the accounts of the School as distinct from those of the corporation, the Trustees cannot but feel that the Rector of the School has cause to feel gratified at his financial exhibit for the past year. His assets are

Accounts due and in course of collection	$5,599 69

But it must be remembered that during the year just past, with the above as the exhibit at the end of the year of the financial situation, there have been paid out of the income of the School, and not from any funds of the corporation, the following amounts for permanent improvements and equipments:

New dormitory with class rooms.....	$2,221 30

So that it appears that during the past year the School has not only paid its own proper expenses, but has also paid out, or rather paid in, over six thousand dollars, almost every dollar of which has gone into permanent improvements upon the property, and into necessary permanent equipment for the School. The Trustees believe that few schools in the country can make so creditable an exhibit.

The attendance of boarding pupils has been the largest in many years, aggregating one hundred and twenty-seven. The total enrolment for the year was two hundred and forty-eight. Of these 138 were from the Diocese of North Carolina, 28 from East Carolina, 23 from South Carolina, 9 from Asheville, 13 from Georgia, and 8 from Southern Virginia. The enrolment shows a steady and healthy advance—1899-1900, 183; 1900-'01, 221; 1901-'02, 248.

It is hardly necessary in this report to go into details of the courses of study, the different Departments and other matters of school organization. The Board of Trustees giving to these matters such attention as is practicable, and the Executive Committee being in constant communication and in perfect sympathy with the Rector in his administration and discipline, agree in the satisfaction which they feel, and which in their formal proceedings they express, with the present conduct and policy of the School under the efficient direction of the Rev. Dr. Bratton.

They submit, through the subscriber, this report of the School and of its Trustees for the year just closed.

JOS. BLOUNT CHESHIRE,

June 11, 1902.

To the Convention of the Diocese of North Carolina.

The Rev. F. W. Hilliard presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS.

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred a resolution proposing an amendment of Chapter III, Canon VIII, having considered the same, beg leave to offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That Chapter III, Canon VIII, be amended by the addition of the following section:

Section 4. Every Mission Station, not within the bounds of a parish, shall pay all money for its Missionary to the Treasurer of its Convocation quarterly, and said Treasurer, if so empowered by the Executive Missionary Committee, shall pay quarterly to each such Missionary all such funds, together with the stipend appropriated by the Convocation. If not so empowered, he shall transmit any funds thus received to the Treasurer of the Diocese who shall pay quarterly to each Missionary all such funds, together with the stipend appropriated by the Executive Missionary Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

F. W. HILLIARD,
Chairman.

The hour for recess having arrived, it was, on motion of Mr. Henry A. London, agreed to suspend the rules of order and to continue the business of the Convention until 1 o'clock.

A resolution to postpone the further consideration of the report did not prevail.

The resolution of the Committee on Canons being put to the vote of the Convention was lost.

The Bishop appointed as members of the Committee to memorialize the Legislature of the State in regard to a Reformatory, the Rev. Dr. Marshall, the Rev. E. A. Osborne, Messrs. R. H. Battle, John S. Henderson and Henry A. London.

The Convention then took a recess until 3:30 o'clock.

THURSDAY, June 12, 3:30 P. M.

The Convention assembled, the Bishop in the chair.

The Bishop announced the appointment of the following persons as members of the Committee called for by the resolution introduced by the Rev. Dr. Murdoch in regard to Sunday School work: The Rev. Messrs E. A. Osborne, E. W. Gamble, S. S. Bost, Messrs. Wm. A. Erwin and H. A. London, Jr.

The Rev. F. W. Hilliard presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS.

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred a resolution concerning the appointment of a separate Treasurer for Diocesan Missions, beg leave to report that they have considered the matter in a report on a kindred subject, and, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolution.

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

F. W. HILLIARD,
Chairman.

The resolution proposed by the Committee was adopted.

The Rev. E. A. Osborne presented the following

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE MISSIONARY COMMITTEE.

The Executive Missionary Committee submit the following report:

Three meetings have been held during the year. The reports of ministers doing missionary work show the usual activity in the mission field during the past year, and also a great demand for renewed and increased efforts on the part of our people in the important work of extending the knowledge and influence of the Church throughout the Diocese.

The Committee made appropriations for the support of two Archdeacons and for aiding fourteen ministers doing missionary work in the Diocese, as may be seen in the Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese. All of these appropriations have been met, as appears from said report, which also shows a balance of $692.18 to the credit of the Missionary Fund; though the actual contributions during the year through the regular channels were not sufficient to cover the amount of these appropriations. This gratifying condition arises from the fact that there has been paid into the Treasury two extraordinary contributions—one from a devoted Church woman of the Diocese of $481.76; and $880 from the Twentieth Century Fund, making a total of $1,361.79—without which there would have been a deficiency of five hundred and twenty-four dollars.

Your Committee call special attention to these facts in order that the members of the Convention may understand that if the Missionary work of the Diocese is to be sustained upon its present basis, special efforts will have to be made by the Church in order to meet the expenses of doing so. They, therefore, earnestly recommend that immediate steps be taken in this matter in order that we may be spared the mortifying and painful necessity of reducing the already too meagre stipends of our Missionaries.

Your Committee have been impressed with the advantages likely to grow out of the present Convocational system and the requirement of quarterly reports from ministers and treasurers. We think these meetings and the frequent discussion of the subjects of these reports are calculated to call attention of the members of the Church to many duties, obligations and privileges that would otherwise be overlooked and forgotten. And in this connection your Committee would recommend that the Treasurer of the Diocese be requested to publish all contributions for Diocesan Missions received by him each month in the MESSENGER OF HOPE.

It is with feelings of deep regret that your Committee mention the resignation of the Rev. John Huske, Archdeacon of the Convocation of Raleigh. His withdrawal from the Mission field of the Diocese is a real loss to us, and we respectfully recommend that another be appointed to fill his place at an early day if possible.

Your Committee are still of the opinion that it would be a wise policy for each Convocation to collect and administer its own Missionary Funds, and recommend that the Convocations take such steps as may enable them to do so as soon as practicable.

Your Committee are also of the opinion that it would be advisable for the Treasurers of all congregations depending in any measure upon the Missionary Funds for support, to account with the Treasurer of the Diocese or of the Convocations for the amount of support pledged the ministers; and recommend that they be required to do so quarterly.

Your Committee offer the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the members of the Church in the Diocese be urged to renewed exertions in procuring necessary means for supporting the Mission work of the Church in the Diocese.

2. Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be requested to publish in the MESSENGER OF HOPE an itemized monthly statement of funds received by him for Mission work in the Diocese.

3. Resolved, That it is recommended that such steps as may be necessary to procure the services of an Archdeacon for the Convocation of Raleigh should be taken as soon as practicable.

4. Resolved, That the Convocations be urged to take such steps as may be necessary for administering the Missionary Funds appropriated for its use.

E. A. OSBORNE,
For the Committee.

The resolutions appended to the report were adopted.

The Reports of the Archdeacons were presented and, on motion, referred to the Committee on State of the Church. (See Appendix B.)

The Rev. Dr. Murdoch presented his report as Clerical Trustee of the University of the South, and offered the appended resolution which was adopted, as follows :

F. J. MURDOCH,
Clerical Trustee.

Resolved, That the collections for the Theological Department at Sewanee be paid hereafter through the Treasurer of the Diocese.

Mr. H. A. London presented the following reports and offered the appended resolutions which were adopted :

The Committee, appointed to consider the recommendations contained in the report of the Trustees of the Diocese, respectfully report that they concur in the said recommendations, and suggest the adoption of the following resolutions :

Resolved 1, That the Trustees to hold property for the Diocese of North Carolina are hereby authorized and instructed to execute a deed of release and quitclaim to the Trustees of Elkin Baptist Church for a lot or parcel of land at Elkin, devised in the last will and testament of the late Alexander B. Galloway, and sold by his widow to said Trustees of Elkin Baptist Church, and that she be released from the obligation of accounting for the proceeds of such sale.

Resolved 2. That the Trustees to hold property for the Diocese of North Carolina are hereby authorized and empowered to unite in the sales of, and join in the execution of the proper deeds for, any unproductive property, devised in the said last will and testament of the said Alexander B. Galloway, in cases where it shall be made to appear to them that it is to the interest of the Diocese to sell the same, and provided that the proceeds of all such sales shall be reinvested and the substituted investments be held on the same terms and conditions now attaching to the property devised in said last will and testament.

E. W. GAMBLE,
H. A. LONDON,
Committee.

The Committee, to whom was referred the final report of Hon. Kemp P. Battle as executor of the last will and testament of the late Miss Mary Ruffin Smith, beg leave to report that they have examined the same and find it correct and that he has paid the full amount due. They recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Convention hereby expresses its thanks to Dr. Battle for the faithful and successful manner in which he has discharged his duties as executor of the last will and testament of the late Miss Mary Ruffin Smith.

E. W. GAMBLE,
H. A. LONDON,
Committee.

The Bishop read a message from the Convention of the District of Asheville, in reply to the greeting forwarded yesterday by the Secretary in obedience to the instructions of the Convention, as follows:

HICKORY, N. C., June 12, 1902.

To the Rt. Rev. Jos. Blount Cheshire, D.D., Oxford, N. C.:

The Convention of the Missionary District of Asheville receives with profound thanks the message of the Convention of North Carolina and sends greetings and brotherly love.

ALFRED H. STUBBS,
Secretary.

The Rule of Order calling for the annual elections was, on motion, suspended until matters under consideration should have been disposed of.

The Rev. E. W. Gamble offered the following resolution, which was not adopted :

Resolved, That this Convention authorize the Executive Missionary Committee to apportion to the several Parishes and Missions the amount required to meet the expenses of the Diocesan Missionary work for the coming year.

The Rev. A. B. Hunter presented the following report, which, on his motion, was referred to the Committee on the State of the Church :

St. Augustine's School, Raleigh, has had in all its departments 325 pupils and 17 teachers. About 120 students have been in the boarding department, a larger number than ever before. There were three graduates in the Collegiate department, two of whom were children of the Rev. John W. Perry, who, with his wife, were graduated at the School a generation ago. There were also three graduates in the Normal Department. The bricklaying class has, during the year, erected a stone building to be used as an assembly hall. Several of the young men have been under training as carpenters, and all the young men receive training in either carpentry, printing or bricklaying; the girls likewise in sewing and cooking.

An effort is still being made to get into helpful touch with the people of the neighborhood, and this year a class in basket-making has been added. The order of the School has been better than ever before. Morning and Evening Prayer are said in the School Chapel every day of the school year, and there is a weekly celebration of the Holy Communion. A debt of several years' standing has this year been paid off. The School is a missionary work of the Church at large, situated in the Diocese of North Carolina, and asks for the interest of the people of the South in doing the work the Church ought to do for colored young men and women.

Respectfully submitted,

June 12, 1902.

A. B. HUNTER,
Principal.

In behalf of the Rev. Dr. Pittenger, the Rev. A. B. Hunter presented the following report of the Diocesan Commissioners of the American Church Building Fund :

Contributions have been made to the Fund within the past year from this Diocese as follows: Charlotte, St. Andrews $1.60; Chestnut Hill, St. Paul's $1.63; Greensboro, St. Andrews $3.25; Henderson, Holy Innocents $4; Louisburg, St. Pauls $3.30; Monroe, St. Paul's $2.70; Mount Airy, Trinity $2; Raleigh, St. Ambrose $2; Raleigh, St. Augustine's $13.29; Rowan County, St. Mary's $3.09; Salisbury, St. Luke's, $5.76; Salisbury, St. Peter's 60 cents; Southern Pines, Emmanuel $1.55; Tarboro, Calvary $1.25; Wilson, St. Timothy's $4. Total, $48.93.

Total amount contributed to the Fund in 22 years, $1,140.65.

Loans have been made as follows:

Henderson, Reidsville, Mecklenburg County, Charlotte, Durham, Greensboro, Louisburg, amounting to $7,063.75. These have all been paid in full.

Donations have been made to the following places:

Louisburg, Sanford, Raleigh, Milton, Mayodan, Wilson, Charlotte, Chestnut Hill, Elkin, Stoneville, Rockingham and Mount Airy, amounting to $1,930 or $889.45 in excess of the contributions. An appropriation of $200 dollars has been granted to aid in the erection of a church at Smithfield.

The amount of the Permanent Fund at the present date is $371,353.52.

Respectfully submitted,

I. McK. PITTENGER,
CHAS. M. BUSBEE,
Commissioners.

The report was, on motion, referred to the Committee on the State of the Church.

On motion, the Convention adjourned to meet on Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

After Evening Prayer at 8:30 o'clock, addresses on Mission Work were made by the Rev. E. W. Gamble and Mr. John W. Wood of New York.

THIRD DAY.

ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH, OXFORD,
FRIDAY, June 13, 1902.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

The Bishop of the Diocese said Morning Prayer, after which he took the chair.

The roll call was, on motion, dispensed with. The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The Treasurer stated that he had received $19.06 for the Diocesan Church Building Fund which was no longer in existence, and, at his own request, he was authorized to forward this sum to the Treasurer of the American Church Building Fund.

The annual elections resulted as follows, the ballot being in each case cast by the Secretary as instructed by the Convention:

Treasurer of the Convention: Mr. Charles E. Johnson.

Standing Committee: the Rev. M. M. Marshall, D.D., the Rev. Julian E. Ingle, the Rev. I. McK. Pittenger, D.D., Mr. P. E. Hines, M.D., and Mr. R. H. Battle.

Delegates to the Missionary Council: the Rev. I. McK. Pittenger, D.D., and Mr. E. G. Muse.

Trustees of the University of the South: the Rev. F. J. Murdoch, D.D., Mr. William L. London and Mr. William A. Smith.

Trustee of the General Theological Seminary: the Rev. Walter J. Smith.

Trustees of the Boys' School at Salisbury: the Rev. I. McK. Pittenger, D.D., and Mr. Joseph B. Batchelor.

Managers of the Thompson Orphanage: the Rev. James Carmichael, D.D., and Mr. Walter G. McRae.

Education Committee: the Rev. E. A. Osborne, the Rev. S. S. Bost, and Mr. Stephen F. Lord.

On motion of the Secretary, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention, that every clergyman of the Diocese resigning the care of any charge therein, should prepare and present to the Bishop a Parochial report to cover the period from the 1st day of May preceding until the date of his withdrawal from such charge, in order that there may be made, at the appointed time, a report covering the entire year.

The Rev. A. B. Hunter, on behalf of the Finance Committee, offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That each Parish and Mission of the Diocese be annually assessed for the Episcopal and Contingent Fund upon the basis of one dollar for each resident communicant as reported in the Journal of the previous year.

Resolved, That certain arrearages of assessments be remitted, as follows: Cuningham's Chapel, $40.30; Madison, St. John's, $38.77; Mayodan, Church of the Messiah, $9.29; Milton, Christ Church, $56.39; Reidsville, St. Thomas, $48.07; Charlotte, St. Michael's, $12.01.

The first resolution being under discussion, the Rev. F. W. Hilliard moved to amend by adding the words:

Provided, That the Convention does not intend to lay a tax of one dollar upon each individual communicant.

On motion, both the resolution and amendment were laid upon the table.

The second resolution was then adopted.

On motion of the Rev. A. B. Hunter, on behalf of the Finance Committee, it was Resolved, That the assessment of the Parishes and Missions for the ensuing year be 15 percent. upon the salaries of ministers and current expenses.

The Rev. F. W. Hilliard presented the following report of the Special Committee on the death of the Rev. Dr. George Patterson. The resolutions offered by the Committee were adopted by a rising vote:

The Committee to whom was referred that part of the Bishop's address relating to the death of the late Rev. George Patterson, D.D., beg leave respectfully to report, and recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That this Convention is grateful to the Bishop for his sketch of the life of Dr. Patterson and his tribute to his memory.

Resolved, That Dr. Patterson, by the very peculiarities of his temperament, derived from his partly foreign origin, by his personal magnetism, especially with young men, by his unselfish and almost reckless exposure to danger of health or life in his devotion to the afflicted, by his absolute faithfulness, physical, intellectual and spiritual, when ministering to slaves; by the great work done by him in the army, and by his stirring, searching, thrilling preaching to the wisest, and the best, was for many years one of the best known, most admired and best loved of the clergy in North Carolina, and that we claim the right to mingle our grief for his loss and our thankful praises for his unique and noble life, with those of the Diocese in which he died.

F. W. HILLIARD,
F. J. MURDOCH,
C. M. BUSBEE,
Committee.

The Bishop made a statement in regard to the disposition of the Twentieth Century Fund.

The Rev. E. W. Gamble presented the following report of the Special Committee on Sunday School work :

Your Committee beg leave to report that they regard the Sunday School work and religious instruction in schools as a matter of vital importance, and think it should be kept constantly in mind and heart by the Convention and receive our most serious and prayerful attention at all times.

The Committee therefore offer the following resolutions:

Resolved 1, That a Committee of three clergymen be annually appointed by the Bishop, to be known as the Sunday School Publishing Committee, whose duty it shall be to publish a uniform course of Sunday School instruction, and that this system be recommended to the Clergy of this Diocese for use in their respective Sunday Schools: Provided, that no expense shall be incurred by this Convention for such publications.

2. That it be recommended to the Principals of all Church Schools in the Diocese that there be included in their several curricula a course of instruction in the Old and New Testaments and Church History that shall be compulsory in order to graduation.

3. That the Chairman of this Committee be authorized and empowered to act as Secretary of Sunday School work, and that it shall be his duty as such to use all means in his power to encourage, stimulate and unify the Sunday School work of the Church in the Diocese.

4. That we earnestly recommend to the Committee that may be appointed its most careful consideration of what is known as the Trinity Course of Church Instruction.

Respectfully submitted,

E. W. GAMBLE,
For the Committee.

The resolutions offered by the Committee were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Chas. E. Johnson, the consideration of the time and place of meeting of the next Annual Convention was made the Order of the day immediately after the consideration of the report on the Thompson Orphanage.

The Rev. E. A. Osborne presented the report of the Special Committee on the Thompson Orphanage, as follows:

The Committee, to whom was referred the report of the Board of Managers of the Thompson Orphanage and Training Institution, respectfully report, that having considered the various matters mentioned in said report, they regard it as a cause for profound gratitude that this noble Institution has been enabled to carry on its blessed work of mercy and love so successfully through another year.

The financial report shows that the Superintendent has wisely and judiciously managed the funds so generously furnished him.

It is especially gratifying to note the improved condition of the health of the inmates of the Institution, which indicates that the cause of sickness during the previous year has been removed.

Your Committee are deeply impressed with the importance of increasing the Endowment Fund as suggested in the report, and would commend this matter to the serious consideration of those who have been blessed with an abundance of this world's goods. The Committee would also recommend that an agent be employed to make special efforts in behalf of this object.

The Messenger of Hope, under its present able management, has proved a most useful instrumentality in the work of the Institution as well as that of the Church in the Diocese, and it seems to your Committee that it should not only receive the cordial support and co-operation of the clergy and laity of the Diocese, but that the Superintendent should have an assistant to help carry on this important department of his work, and that its usefulness would be greatly enhanced both for the Orphanage and the Church by making it a weekly instead of a monthly paper.

Finally, your Committee heartily approve all the recommendations mentioned in the report and cordially commend this great work to the generous consideration of our people, and trust they will continue to aid it with their gifts and their earnest prayers.

The Committee beg leave to offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That an agent be employed by the Convention to solicit funds for the endowment of the Thompson Orphanage.

E. A. OSBORNE,
For the Committee.

The resolution appended to the report was adopted.

On motion of Mr. John Wilkes, the vote upon the last resolution was reconsidered.

The Rev. F. W. Hilliard moved to amend the resolution so as to read as follows :

Resolved, That the Board of Managers be recommended to employ an agent to solicit funds for the endowment of the Thompson Orphanage.

The amendment was agreed to, and the resolution as amended was adopted.

The Order of the day being called for, the Rev. Dr. Murdoch moved that the next Convention meet on Wednesday, May 13, 1903. The motion was agreed to, but the matter was reconsidered, and on motion of Mr. R. H. Battle, the 10th day of June was appointed as the time of meeting.

The Rev. Dr. Marshall invited the Convention to meet in Christ Church, Raleigh, and the Rev. Sanders R. Guignard presented a similar invitation to St. Andrew's Church, Greensboro. A ballot being taken, Greensboro was chosen as the place of meeting.

On motion of Mr. R. H. Battle, it was Resolved, That the thanks of the Convention are hereby tendered to the Rector and congregation of St. Stephen's Church, and to the citizens of Oxford generally, for their generous hospitality in the entertainment of the members of the Convention and of the visitors in attendance on its sessions.

On motion of the Treasurer, he was authorized to pay the travelling expenses of the Clergy canonically resident in the Diocese and in attendance at the Convention, but not entitled to seats in the same.

The Rev. Sidney S. Bost presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Committee on the State of the Church find that nine parishes and missions, represented by five clergymen, did not send in their reports at the time required by the Canons. This necessarily makes our report less complete and satisfactory. We again urge upon the clergy the importance of closing their accounts on the last day of April, and sending them at once to the Secretary of the Convention.

From the incomplete statistics furnished us, we find that conservative gains have been made in nearly every department of the Church's work. There were reported 396 baptisms—a gain of 51 over last year; 375 persons were confirmed—a gain of 81 over last year. There has been a net gain in communicants of $2\frac{3}{4}$ per cent., and a net gain in the baptized membership of $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.

We are especially glad to note a large increase in the number of pupils in the Sunday Schools. The growth here has been more than 11 per cent.

Parochial property has increased in value $68,527, while the indebtedness is only $3,134 greater than that of last year. Aggregate disbursements are greater by $3,215.

The twenty-sixth Annual Report of St. Peter's Hospital, Charlotte, is gratifying to your Committee. We commend this institution for its noble work, and for having finished the year with a balance in money to its credit.

The tenth Annual Report of the Good Samaritan Hospital is a creditable one. The officers report that "the Hospital has been kept in excellent order," and that the year "closed with the Hospital free from debt." We note with pleasure that some improvements and additions are to be made.

We rejoice over the hopefulness of the Superintendent of the Thompson Orphanage and Training Institution. He says: "The Institution, both financially and physically, is in a healthy condition." We commend the appeals of himself and of the Board of Managers to the sympathy and support of the Church people throughout the State. The recommendations of the Committee, to whom were referred the reports of the Superintendent and Board of Managers, are hereby conveyed to the Convention.

Your Committee read with special interest the report of the Executive Missionary Committee. Following their suggestion, we respectfully urge upon every member of the Clergy to make the quarterly reports to the Archdeacons, as required by the resolutions of the Convocations respectively. No question before this Convention has elicited such deep interest and earnest discussion as the question of Diocesan Missions. This work will be greatly advanced if every minister in the Diocese will, every three months, by written reports, remind himself, the Archdeacon and the Bishop of what he is doing and failing to do. We insist upon this as one of the wisest of the many recommendations submitted for the good of the Church.

The reports of the Archdeacons show that the Mission work (that portion of it committed to them), is in faithful and efficient hands. Perhaps it is not too much to say that the intense fervor for Missions which has manifested itself throughout this Convention is creditable to their zealous exertions. Loyalty to them, and co-operation with them, will solve the great problem of Diocesan Missions.

The work among the colored people has prospered. The Archdeacon of this work gives it as his deliberate judgment that in the South the negro will find his greatest prosperity and happiness. If the South is the permanent home of the colored people, we shall help ourselves by helping them.

We trust the Convention will heartily endorse the following recommendations contained in the Bishop's address: (1) That all the Sunday Schools in the Diocese appropriate their Advent Offerings to Diocesan Missions. This will not only aid the work financially, but will train the children in those responsibilities which will soon rest upon them. (2) That the clergy instruct the people upon the meaning, and the proper observance of the Ember-Seasons, and the Rogation Days. (3) Our Canons require that five offerings be taken each year for Diocesan objects. The various reports show that a majority of the churches have neglected to take one or more of the offerings. We respectfully urge the necessity of taking these collections regularly, and on stated days. We further recommend that the Treasurer of the Diocese be instructed to furnish each parish and mission with a card, printed in clear type, showing the objects of these five offerings, and the days on which they should be taken. Let the clergy post these in the Vestry room, or keep them in some place for convenience, and constant reference.

The work of the Sunday School is becoming more prominent in the Convention. The Convocations of Raleigh and Charlotte have offered certificates to every person within their bounds who shall make a perfect recitation of the Church Catechism. Already twenty-five persons have successfully passed the examination. If our ministers will push this plan, not only will they instruct the children in those things "which a Christian ought to know and believe, to his soul's health," but they will greatly facilitate the work of preparing the young for confirmation.

There are other things of equal importance with what has been embodied in the above report. These have, of necessity, been omitted. The Committee desire to congratulate the Church, in all its departments of work, upon the gratifying results of the past year.

SIDNEY S. BOST, Chairman.

The Rev. S. P. Watters presented the following report :

The Diocesan Association of the Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society has, during the past year, fulfilled the expectations expressed in its last report. Contributions from eleven congregations and a few individuals have amounted to $165.69, making, with the balance on hand at the beginning of the year, $64.35, a sum of $230.04. Of this amount $219.74 has been paid on account of nine of our clergy, and there remains in the hands of the Treasurer a balance of $10.30. Annuities paid by the Society to our annuitant Clergy amounted to $254.59—that is to say, about $89 in excess of our contributions for the year.

The Society has recently adopted a policy even more liberal than heretofore in regard to its pensions, and in future one-half of all undesignated contributions will be added annually to the interest on the invested funds for distribution among the annuitants who now number 244 of the Clergy.

The Association earnestly requests annual offerings from all the congregations of the Diocese and the hearty co-operation of individual members of the Church in an endeavor to provide an honorable pension for the aged Clergy.

The number of clergymen in our own Diocese who are enrolled as members of the parent Society is 23. Will not the remaining 24 consider the importance of aiding in the care of their elder brethren, as well as of providing for themselves against the time of age and possible need?

The invested funds of the Society now amount to $173,775.

Respectfully submitted,

S. PAXSON WATTERS,
For the Executive Committee.

On motion of the Rev. A. B. Hunter, as amended by Mr. Wm. L. London, the Secretary was instructed to have printed one thousand copies of the Journal of the Convention.

On motion of Mr. R. H. Battle, the offerings of the Sunday Schools of the Diocese in the season of Advent were requested for the work of Diocesan Missions.

The Bishop appointed as members of the Sunday School Publishing Committee, the Rev. Wm. H. Meade, D.D., the Rev. E. W. Gamble and the Rev. Robert B. Owens.

The Secretary was, on motion, instructed to have printed and distributed among the Clergy a list of the special offerings required by the Canons of the Diocese.

There being no further business before the Convention, it was, on motion of the Rev. H. T. Gregory, resolved that after the reading of the minutes and the usual concluding devotions, the Convention should stand adjourned sine die.

The minutes were read and approved, the Gloria in Excelsis was sung, the Bishop offered prayer and pronounced the Benediction, and the Convention was declared adjourned.

JOSEPH BLOUNT CHESHIRE, D.D.,

Bishop of North Carolina.

Attest:

JULIAN E. INGLE,

Secretary of the Convention.

APPENDIX A.

ADDRESS OF THE BISHOP.

Brethren of the Diocese of North Carolina :

The word which comes spontaneous from our lips is first of all one of congratulation to our brethren of St. Stephen's Church, Oxford, before we address ourselves to the proper business of the Convention. If one member rejoice, all the members rejoice with it. This is a joyful season for the Rector and people of this Parish. They have labored long and faithfully, and not without discouragements and difficulties. But to-day they enjoy the fruits of their labors. This beautiful and appropriate edifice in which we are assembled testifies of their faith, their liberality, their zeal for God's glory and for the establishment and extension of His kingdom amongst men. And it is an essential element in the joy we feel and express, that this outward building is only an imperfect representation of the better and more lasting work going on in this Parish in building up the spiritual fabric of immortal souls. I can assure the Convention that that more important part of the Parish work has been as zealously, as faithfully, and as successfully performed, as has this outer work which we see with our eyes.

Eighteen years ago our first Convention, after the erection of the Diocese of East Carolina, was held in Oxford. The preacher upon that occasion pointed out, and the report of the Committee on the State of the Church emphasized, the fact, that our numbers, after taking off East Carolina, were about the same as in 1873, when Bishop Lyman had been chosen Bishop. It may be interesting to observe that, though Asheville has recently been set off from us, our numbers are in no items much smaller, while in some they are very much greater than in 1884, when we had all those twenty-seven Counties now comprised within the Missionary District of Asheville. In 1884 we had in all 54 Clergy, 80 Parishes and Missions, 2,000 Sunday School scholars, and 2,600 communicants. At present we have 47 Clergy, 93 Parishes and Missions, 3,500 Sunday School scholars, and nearly 5,000 communicants. Numbers do not tell everything, but it is worth while noticing that at least our work is broadening out in many directions, and demanding of us ever increasing zeal, devotion and love. Let us pray God to give us greater power of labor and self-sacrifice, that we may not be wanting in the work whereto He calls us.

We have not at this Convention to record the death of any of our brethren of the Clergy. We thank God that all are allowed to continue their service in this world where they are so much needed. But I feel that I cannot pass over without some word of love and of honor the recent death of the Rev. George Patterson, D.D., which occurred a few months ago in Memphis, Tennessee, where for several years he had been serving as Rector of Calvary Church. Our deceased brother was long associated with this Diocese, and had so warm a place in our hearts, that we never felt that he had ceased to be one of us. His first connection with this Diocese appears to have been his admission as a candidate for Orders by Bishop Ives, December 12th, 1850. He had but just come into the Diocese from Massachusetts. He was one of the student associates of the old Valle Crucis Mission; was ordained Deacon by Bishop Ives in Grace Church, Plymouth, Good Friday, April 9th, 1852, and received Priest's Orders in Trinity Church, Hertford, at the hands of Bishop Atkinson on the fifth Sunday after Easter, April 27th, 1856. His services to the Diocese need not be recapitulated here. They are fresh in our memory. His relations with the Diocese ceased practically in October, 1880, when he resigned his Parish of St. John's Church, Wilmington, to become the Agent of the University of the South; and to the Convention of 1882 Bishop Lyman reported that he had taken letters dismissory to the Diocese of Texas. Though in all places where he labored he was most acceptable as a pastor and preacher, yet perhaps no part of his ministry was more effective, and certainly by no part of his work was he better known, than by his service as Chaplain of the Third North Carolina Regiment in the Army of Northern Virginia, during the war between the States. Fearless, faithful, diligent, devout, loving, with a frankness and directness of speech which carried him at once to the mind and to the heart of the hearer, he had also a strong touch of that enthusiasm, which the prosaic and careless affect to despise, but which nevertheless moves even them more than they will admit, perhaps more than they realize. He was uncompromising in his loyalty to the Church, and under the most trying and difficult circumstances showed that loyalty and inspired weaker brethren with something of his own virtue. His early labors in this Diocese were largely given to the negro slaves in Washington and Tyrrell Counties and were most successful. He was always ready to devote the very best that was in him to the service of the lowliest. He was a strong and eloquent preacher, a diligent and loving pastor, a noble and a godly Priest of Christ and His Church. The Diocese of North Carolina thanks God for his good example and for his happy departure to his rest.

In the afternoon in the Church of St. Michael and All Angels, preached, confirmed and addressed eighteen persons.

30. In Raleigh, confirmed a sick man in private.

In addition to the services enumerated as performed within the Diocese I have officiated a number of times beyond its limits.

May 1st, 1901, the Feast of St. Philip and St. James, I had the pleasure of being present at the annual pilgrimage of the patriotic women of Wilmington to the old town of Brunswick and the ruins of old St. Philip's Church; and upon that occasion I conducted a brief series with special prayers appropriate to the occasion.

June 16th, the Second Sunday after Trinity, being at Valle Crucis on my way to Sewanee, I had service in the Chapel morning and afternoon, made an address to the Sunday School, and preached.

June 18th, in Elk Park I had service and preached in the Methodist Church.

June 21st to the 27th, was in attendance upon the Board of Trustees in its annual meeting and the exercises connected with the Commencement of the University of the South at Sewanee.

August 11th and 18th, the Tenth and Eleventh Sundays after Trinity, I took part in the services and preached in the beautiful old colonial Church of All Faith, St. Mary's County, Maryland. August the 16th, I visited the still more beautiful and interesting old Church at Chaptico, in the same County, from which Parish so many of the ancestors of Rowan and Iredell County churchmen came. I took the trouble to visit this rather out-of-the-way place on account of my interest in the origins of our North Carolina Churches.

August 6th, the Feast of the Transfiguration, I administered the Holy Communion in private to a sick person in the same County.

From September 23d to October 26th, I was absent going to and returning from San Francisco, in attendance upon the General Convention.

September 29th, the Seventeenth Sunday after Trinity, in Los Angeles, California, I preached, in the forenoon in Christ Church, and in the evening in St. Paul's pro-Cathedral.

October 6th, the Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity, in St. Paul's Church, San Francisco, I administered the Holy Communion.

October 13th, the Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity, in the Chapel of the Holy Innocents, San Francisco, I preached and administered the Holy Communion.

November 14th, in Portsmouth, Virginia, I married a couple.

January 29th, 1902, I married a couple in Grace Church, Petersburg, in the same State, assisted in the service by the Rector of the Church.

Within the limits of the Diocese I have, during the year ending April 30th, officiated upon one hundred and fifty-three occasions; administered the Holy Communion fifty-three times; preached one hundred sermons; made forty-five addresses; confirmed three hundred and seventy-five persons; baptized eleven adults and one infant; and officiated at two funerals.

Adding to these the services outside the Diocese, gives a total of 166 services, 56 celebrations of the Holy Communion, 107 sermons, 46 addresses.

I cannot say, as I did in my last annual address, that I have during the year visited every Parish and Mission of the Diocese. From one cause or another, I was prevented from making appointments at a few of the smallest Missions, and several appointments which had been made were recalled at the request of the local minister, or for some equally good reason. But no place has been unvisited where there seemed to be any opportunity for a profitable service. I have visited eighty-two of our ninety-three Parishes and Missions—many of them more than once.

November 18th, 1901, I reorganized the Mission of St. John's Church, Battleboro, appointing Barnard B. Guion, Warden, Andrew J. Hobgood, Clerk, and Joseph B. Philips, Treasurer. This had for years been carried on our list of organized Missions, but I could find no record of its organization, and there had been no election of officers for several years past, and upon the petition of the congregation I reorganized it and recorded it in the Register of the Diocese, in which are entered all matters appertaining to such a record. In another volume, which I call the Episcopal Register, I enter in full such forms and precedents, relating to the proceedings of all kinds transacted officially as seem to be of a character likely to be useful to my successors. In the absence of any system of ecclesiastical courts for the interpretation and administration of our Canonical regulations, the keeping of such an Episcopal Register would seem to be the most practical way for creating and preserving some kind of system and uniformity in the episcopal administration.

During the year covered by this address we have received into the Diocese by letters dimissory six Presbyters, and one Deacon has been ordained. During the same period we have lost by removal to other Dioceses three Presbyters; and one Presbyter has been deposed. There has been, therefore, a net gain of two, one Presbyter and one Deacon, making our number on the first day of May, forty-seven in all, namely, one Bishop, thirty-seven Presbyters and nine Deacons.

Gained by transfer :

The Rev. Clarence Croft Leman, Priest, from Florida, May 10, 1901.

The Rev. Louis G. Wood, Priest, from Washington, July 1, 1901.

The Rev. George M. Tolson, Priest, from East Carolina, July 1, 1901.

The Rev. Cary Gamble, Priest, from Southern Virginia, September 1, 1901.

The Rev. John Huske, Priest, from New York, November 30, 1901.

Ordained :

The Rev. Richard Louis Bame, Deacon, September 22, 1901.

Lost by removal :

The Rev. Frederick Towers, Priest, to Massachusetts, November 13, 1901.

The Rev. Alban Greaves, Priest, to Virginia, November 13, 1901.

The Rev. Louis G. Wood, Priest, to South Carolina, April 22, 1902.

Deposed :

Edward P. Green, Priest, September 5, 1901.

The candidates for Priest's Orders are the Rev. Royal G. Shannonhouse, Deacon ; the Rev. James E. King, Deacon ; the Rev. Richard L. Bame, Deacon ; Thaddeus A. Cheatham, Francis Moore Osborne, Alfred Rives Berkley.

The candidates for Deacon's Orders are William Edward Callender, Robert Nathaniel Perry.

The Postulants are Homer Leach Hoover, John H. Crosby, Hugh Preston Eanes, William Eanes.

Of the Clergy whom we have lost, the Rev. Frederick Towers had long been absent from the Diocese ; the Rev. Alban Greaves left Louisburg and Kittrell vacant, and his place has not yet been supplied. The Rev. Louis G. Wood held the Rectorship of St. Athanasius, Burlington, for about ten months, and his recent departure leaves it again vacant. Mr. Green I had been obliged to remove from the field which he served in Anson and Stanly Counties. Some months before his deposition, I was obliged to inform him that I could offer him no further work in the Diocese, and he had been unemployed for sometime before he withdrew from the Church.

Of those whom we have gained, the Rev. Clarence C. Leman is Rector of St. Peter's Church, Charlotte ; the Rev. George M. Tolson is Rector of Calvary Church, Wadesboro, and at my request has from April 1st, 1902, assumed charge also of All Souls', Ansonville, and the Church of the Messiah, Rockingham ; the Rev. Cary Gamble has become Rector of St. Timothy's Church, Wilson, having a Mission at the neighboring village of Elm City, and since May 1st also taking the Mission at Cary, in place of St. John's Church, Battleboro, which he served most efficiently from July 1st, 1901, to April 1st, 1902 ; and the Rev. Richard Louis Bame is serving his Diaconate under the Rev.

Dr. Marshall, having special charge of the Chapel and Mission School of St. Saviour's, Raleigh.

The Rev. John Huske held the office of Archdeacon of Raleigh from November, 1901, to April 1st, 1902, when he resigned, and desired a few months' vacation, being advised thereto by his physician. He proposes to return to the Diocese after the end of the coming summer. During the time he was with us, his labors were most faithful and diligent, and productive of much good. Besides many services in different parts of the Convocation of Raleigh, he gave monthly services regularly at Louisburg, Williamsboro, and Smithfield, and made a most favorable impression in those communities, noticeably increasing the zeal of our people, and advancing the interests of the Church.

There have been no important changes in the fields of labor of our Clergy other than those already mentioned. The Rev. Charles Fetter has assumed by my direction the pastoral charge of the Mission of St. John's Church, Battleboro, since the Rev. Cary Gamble's release from that field.

Christ Church and St. Andrew's, in Rowan County, with the Chapels of St. Matthew's, St. Jude's, and St. George's, are served by the Rev. John L. Saunders, all being under the priestly care of Archdeacon Osborne; and the Rev. Thomas L. Trott, retaining the care of St. Mark's Chapel, Rowan, resides at Cooleemee, and devotes himself chiefly to the Mission in that important manufacturing town, giving also a monthly service to St. Philip's Church, Mocksville, and another at Cooleemee Plantation, in Davie County.

The address of the Bishop to the Annual Convention of the Diocese is intended to put before Clergy and Laity the condition of its affairs, that they may consider and determine what may be done for the further extension and upbuilding of the Church within its borders. The first subject, therefore, which demands our attention is the work of the Church in its Pastoral and Missionary aspect. Our Parishes, as a rule, are supplied with godly and faithful Priests and Deacons. Burlington, Williamsboro, Louisburg, and Kittrell are our only vacant Parishes. Our Missions also during the past year have been fairly well served. But at the present time our forty-six Priests and Deacons (less four not in actual service) have to supply ninety-three Missions and Parishes. Of these ninety-three, four at the present moment are without pastoral service, but these are quite off-set by Missions actually carried on by the Clergy, but not upon our list, so that we may safely say that forty-two Clergymen are maintaining services in more than ninety places. When we consider how many of our larger Parishes demand and receive, as they should do, the entire service of the Clergyman in charge, we can form some idea of the way in which our smaller Missions must necessarily be served, and the infrequent ministrations which they receive. One of our Priests has under his charge two weak Parishes, and five still weaker Missions, another serves one Parish and four Missions, another four Missions. One Deacon in Rowan County serves two Parishes and three Missions, another four Missions, and so on.

Our Archdeacon of Charlotte, besides making quarterly visitations to the Missions in all parts of his extensive Convocation, has during the past year maintained regular ministrations at four or five vacant Missions, and as the report of the Treasurer shows, he also raised the greater part of the salary pledged to him by the Diocese. While such evidences of the self-sacrificing zeal of the Clergy cannot but fill us with respect for their character and sympathy for the hardness of their lot, they put most forcibly before us our duty to them and to the work thus insufficiently provided for. First of all, this state of things proceeds from the want of means to support a sufficient number of men to do the work. I ask the Convention, therefore, to take into consideration the necessity of making better provision for the support of our Diocesan Missionary work. You have before you the report of the Treasurer of the Diocese, and the report of our Executive Missionary Committee. Assuming that these will sufficiently set forth the situation financially, I will not here enlarge upon that aspect of it.

One thing, however, it comes specially within my province to say. We began during the year just passed a new method of Missionary administration by dividing all the work into three Convocations, each under its proper Archdeacon. I cannot feel that I have made as much of this method as I might have done. New methods, if really great improvements on the old, seldom work easily at first. I see many defects in my own administration; I see where others have also failed either through misapprehension or other cause. Circumstances unnecessary to mention have really prevented any proper attempt to work the new method in a great part of the Diocese. I can say, however, that in the Convocation of Charlotte, where it had been longer in operation, the Archdeacon has been able to administer the Missionary work in general accordance with the scheme contemplated in our Canon. I believe there is little or no difference of opinion among the Clergy as to the general effectiveness of the system. One fact speaks in favor of his work. Though this is much the weaker of the two Convocations of our white people, the Archdeacon has raised in it the greater part of his salary. I trust, therefore, that the Convention will provide the means of supporting an Archdeacon of Raleigh during the present year, and that the same good work may be as effectively done in the Convocation of Raleigh.

Perhaps I ought not to omit to say here, that although the late date at which Archdeacon Huske took up his work, and the necessity of resigning it after only five months' service as Archdeacon, made it impossible to put the new method to a thorough trial in the Convocation of Raleigh, yet the services of Mr. Huske were not only most helpful and stimulating in every part of the field visited by him, as was said before, but that in the mere matter of money he raised for the benefit of his Missions more than twice as much as the salary he received.

One feature of the Canons in question is the requirement of quarterly reports to the Archdeacons and the Convocations. I ask special attention to this. In the judgment of some of us this method, if insisted upon and put into practice, will go a great way toward remedying some of the gravest practical evils in the administration of the business of the Convention and the Diocese.

Closely connected with this question of the proper service of our congregations and the extension of our Missionary operations, indeed the central thing of all, is the question of raising up men for the ministry. Our list of Postulants and of Candidates is lamentably short. I am most happy in the character of those whom I have. Never since the beginning of my Episcopate have we had a better quality of young men. But how does it come about that when every place of worldly honor or profit is sought by dozens and scores of young men, when the public service, civil and military, may command the choice of our best, the highest and holiest, the happiest and most honorable of all callings is so seldom sought? I take blame to myself, most of us must bear part of the burden of this responsibility. When we see how some of our brethren bring forward the best of their flocks and fill them with holy zeal and pure desire for this service, we cannot help feeling that we have been remiss who have not had our share in this work. Let me beg you, brethren of the Clergy, and of the Laity as well, let me beg you to take this to heart. Set yourselves to examine your work and see if this part has been attended to. Perhaps in many parishes of our Diocese, young men, or mature men, may be waiting for the proper word of advice or of encouragement from you. God must call to this work, but God calls in many ways, and the voice which speaks in the heart may need the other voice of friend or pastor to help it to prevail. Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you men of good report, full of the Holy Ghost, and of faith, whom we may appoint over this business.

This calls to mind another matter in the same connection. Do we observe as we should do the appointed seasons of fasting and prayer, and call upon the Lord of the Harvest to send forth the laborers? The rubric requires that they should be observed, and that notice should be given the preceding Sunday. I have not infrequently been present at the services on the Sunday preceding the quarterly Ember Days, when no notice has been given of service for those days, not even any notice that the days should be observed by fasting and prayer. Let me beg the Clergy to be more careful in bringing this matter to the attention of our people, and of encouraging in every proper way the observance of the holy seasons.

The same may be said of the Rogation Days. They should be more generally observed than they are. The Prayer Book provides special prayers for these days, and we should use them. It is especially desirable in these days when increasing knowledge of the wonderful wisdom, beauty and complexity of the laws of God have almost made us forget Him whose power and wisdom and goodness they display, that we shall annually on the Rogation Days acknowledge Him the Maker and Preserver of all things, from Whom cometh every good and perfect gift, giving us rain from heaven, and filling our hearts with food and gladness.

Some weeks preceding last Advent season I made an appeal to the Sunday Schools of the Diocese to devote their Advent offerings to the cause of Diocesan Missions. This was not an idea of my own, but I made the request upon the suggestion of some of our most faithful Sunday School workers, who represented to me that the seven Sundays now devoted to the Sunday School Lenten offering for General Foreign and Domestic Missions, added to the four Advent Sundays, would make only eleven Sundays in the year, but little more than one-fifth of the whole, and that our Sunday Schools might well be asked to give this proportion of the Sunday offerings to the work of Missions, their Lenten offerings for General Missions and the Advent offerings for the Missionary work of the Diocese. Those who suggested this plan to me were most enthusiastic in advocating it, and it appealed to my judgment as being not without reasons in its favor. I, therefore, made the appeal, and out of our Missionary funds boxes were provided to be distributed among the Sunday Schools of the Diocese. Owing to our unfortunate delay in distributing these mite-boxes the offerings amounted to very little. I mention the matter here because it is my desire and effort to act in all matters of this kind with the full sympathy and co-operation of the Clergy and people of the Diocese. I think in this matter the judgment and feelings of the Clergy should be specially considered. If they approve of this plan, and express a desire for its continuance, and will promise their earnest co-operation, it may be made a most important means of increasing the funds in the Missionary Treasury. If, however, they do not think it best to make this appeal, it would be useless to persevere in this effort. I desire from the Convention an expression of their judgment upon this question.

Another matter relating to our collections for Missions should not be passed over. Acting under the direction of the General Convention sitting as the Board of Missions, the Board of Managers of our Foreign and Domestic Missions have asked of this Diocese the sum of $1,352.71 as our proportion of the amount needed to meet the appropriations of the Board for the current year. Upon being notified of this action of the Board of Managers, calling to my assistance those of our Deputies in the General Convention of 1901 who could conveniently meet me, I apportioned this amount among the congregations of the Diocese, laying some portion of it upon each congregation, not exempting even the very smallest and weakest, since all should enjoy the privilege of participating in this work. I acted in this matter in accordance with my own judgment formed upon the best advice accessible to me. I have been gratified at the general acquiescence in my action, and by the interest manifested by our people in responding to this call. I am happy to inform the Convention that a partial report of the contributions of this Diocese to the cause of Foreign and Domestic Missions from September 1, 1901, to May 1, 1902, shows that more than twice as much had been given in those eight months as during the whole of the last preceding year; and that about two-thirds of the whole sum asked of us had already been received. This is most gratifying. May I not urge you all, my dear brethren, to exert yourselves to make up in your several congregations the amount remaining of your parts of this sum that before the first day of next September the whole amount asked of this Diocese may be paid in?

And allow me to make a suggestion in this matter. It is probable that this system of apportioning among the Dioceses the amount annually needed by our Foreign and Domestic work, will become our regular means of raising this fund. We should, therefore, make it a part of our regular annual work. Our Diocesan Canon requires a collection to be taken in each congregation for this General Missionary work on some Sunday in January. I am satisfied that a little special effort to enlist the interest and sympathy of the lay people in this annual Epiphany Offering for General Missions will in most cases make it possible to raise the amount asked of each congregation at this annual offering. My suggestion is that an earnest effort be made by all to do this. Let us raise this apportionment during the month of January and thus have it out of the way of our Missionary, Parochial, and Diocesan work.

I have time left me for only a very brief reference to some of our Diocesan institutions.

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL.

Nothing needs to be said of this noble institution except that as it goes on increasing and extending its power and influence for good, so it demands our increasing interest and liberality in its support. I cannot forget the burden it carries in the unpaid balance of twenty-five thousand dollars of the purchase money. So long as that remains unpaid, it is an incubus upon the School, a menace to its permanence, a discouragement to many who might be disposed to make it the recipient of their beneficence and liberality. May we not trust that some liberal soul may be moved to open his heart and his purse, and extinguish this remaining indebtedness? In the enthusiasm and interest created by the admirable and successful administration of the School, in the large attendance of pupils, in the excellence of the work done by the Rector and his able corps of instructors, in the felicitations and compliments of Commencements, this little matter of the unpaid balance it is easy to forget. We must not forget it. It must in some way be paid. Where is the wise heart and liberal hand that shall do this great service to the Church and to the cause of Christian Education?

In regard to the School itself, its administration, its course of study, its intellectual and moral results, the formative and stimulating influence exerted upon the precious young lives committed to it, I believe we may safely say that we have every cause to be satisfied and thankful. It is adding every year to the character acquired during the sixty years of its existence, and its influence is visibly extending. It is indeed the Diocesan

School for Girls of all the Carolina Bishops and their Dioceses and people. It is the firm belief of those most closely associated with its affairs that the numbers in attendance might easily be doubled or trebled if it were possible to provide for the accommodation of such an increase. We cannot help feeling that the Church in the Carolinas fails to realize, as it should do, the immense possibilities for its own edification which it possesses in St. Mary's School under the able and wise administration of the Rev. Dr. Bratton.

THE THOMPSON ORPHANAGE AND TRAINING INSTITUTION.

The report of the Board of Managers shows that this institution of the Church continues its beneficent work. Its means being limited, and the generosity of our congregations having for some years past reached that point in ordinary contributions which in the present condition of the Church in North Carolina cannot be very materially increased, we cannot look for any immediate enlargement of this charity. But it still holds its place in the hearts of our people. The most interesting and encouraging fact disclosed by the report of its managers is the very hopeful beginning which has been made towards an endowment. The endowment fund now amounts to six thousand dollars, and we may hope to see it increased gradually as time goes on.

ST. AUGUSTINE'S SCHOOL.

St. Augustine's School is really not a Diocesan institution, but one of a general character, supported by the Church as such, and drawing its patronage from many States and Dioceses. Nevertheless being situated within our borders, and the Bishop of the Diocese being ex officio the head of the corporation, it is in a manner the head and center of our work among our colored people. It is in a most prosperous condition and is doing its work faithfully and well. Besides the classical and normal departments, it has of late been specially developing the industrial features of the School, running through all its departments. One most important feature of the work is the St. Agnes Hospital, in which opportunity may be had for the treatment of surgical cases under favorable conditions hardly to be secured in the dwellings of our colored people. And in the Hospital is also an excellent School for Nurses, where young colored women are prepared to act as trained nurses, a service for which in many respects they possess peculiar fitness.

I cannot refrain from mentioning in this connection the generous act of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter in erecting for the use of the School the beautiful and commodious building known as "Taylor Hall" for the public exercises of the School, and for other most necessary purposes of school life. This is only in accord with the whole work of these self-sacrificing servants of the Church, who, in giving, have first of all given themselves.

With this very brief and inadequate review of some of the important phases of our work, I must conclude. We have much to do in the Diocese of North Carolina, and not much of material means to do it with. We see upon all sides conditions which seem to demand of us more than we have to give. We are tempted to feel discouragement at the prospect, and to repine when our best efforts are less successful than we had hoped they might be, but we have in this situation the opportunity of exercising the noblest and more essential qualities of the Christian character, and thereby enriching human life with that which is above all the achievements of the hand or even the mind of man. We may develop patience and faith. We may see the power of God present to accomplish His purposes, and may learn to rely more and more upon Him, the less we have of other help, and we may learn to wait upon Him, and to know that not one word of His shall fail. Blessed are all they that wait for Him.

JOS. BLOUNT CHESHIRE,
Bishop of North Carolina.

The Archdeacon of Charlotte has held occasional services at Mount Mourne, Albemarle and Huntsville in the neighborhood of which at distances of from one to ten miles, are to be found a few church people. The late Rev. Mr. Lacey began to collect funds for the building of a church at Huntsville and gave $50 for the purpose, but nothing has been done in the matter since his death.

At Huntsville there are 2 families, 23 baptized persons, and 8 communicants. Two infants have been baptized, and there have been 2 celebrations of the Holy Communion. Contributions have been $7 for Diocesan Missions, and $3 for the Twentieth Century Fund.

At Mount Mourne there are 3 families, 20 baptized persons, 7 communicants. One infant has been baptized, and there has been 1 celebration of the Holy Communion.

At Albemarle there are 2 families, 12 baptized persons, 5 communicants. One person has been confirmed, and there has been 1 celebration of the Holy Communion.

Charlotte, Memorial Chapel of St. Mary the Virgin; the Rev. WALTER J. SMITH, Chaplain.

It should perhaps be stated that owing to my sickness and the presence of other matters, some of the amounts reported above have not been turned over to the proper authorities, and also that owing to the same cause the Junior Auxiliary does not make a better showing. In addition to the services above mentioned, I have celebrated the Holy Communion once in private at Scotland Neck, read the Burial Service twice in Charlotte, and once at St. Mary's, Rowan County, preached once each at Seversville, Monroe, Charlotte, and Wadesboro, and attended six Convocational and other Church meetings, taking part in the services, and making advances.

Charlotte, Church of St. Michael and All Angels (colored); the Rev. P. P. ALSTON, Minister in Charge.

General: Domestic Missions $10. Foreign Missions $3.16. Colored Missions $10—total $23.16. Aggregate $1,751.01.

I am pleased to say that since we reported last, I have succeeded in erecting a most excellent brick building for carrying on our Training and Industrial School work. The building is three stories high, including the basement, and is of brick made and put in the walls by colored skill. We have not been able to finish the building as yet; but when it is completed, it will be one of the most handsome school buildings in the State for colored people. We need $2,000 to complete it. Who will help us?

Charlotte, St. Peter's Church; the Rev. CLARENCE CROFT LEMAN, Rector.

Families 172. Baptized persons 752. Baptisms: infant 18; adult 1—total 19. Confirmed 14. Communicants: last reported 359; admitted 15; received 45; died 3; removed 24; present number 392. Within the past year we have bought for $50 a nice organ. At one time we had 86 names enrolled in our Sunday School. While no persons have been added to the Church at this place, still great work has been done. The harvest is not yet ripe. Were it possible it would be folly to reap before the harvest is ripe. This is not yet an organized Mission.

Since last year the church has been completed and is a very nice comfortable building.

Of the Sunday School scholars reported 51 are gathered at the Cooleemee Plantation where it is hoped soon to build a chapel. Services are held there every fifth Sunday and at other times.

The Mission school which we were able to open last October has been very successful under the direction of our Mission teacher Miss Cornie S. Young, a most devoted and Christian young woman. The community is small and sparsely settled, but the school is destined to do much good if it can only be continued. The present term will be closed the 19th of the month with a public concert in the County court-house. I go to this Mission once every month.

The first of January last we moved our Parish School to the basement of the church, which had been fitted up for this purpose. This enables us to have all the children attend the week-day services of the church much more conveniently than heretofore; it also gives us a much better play-ground. The influence of the Church and School continues to grow, and the outlook for the Church in this community is very bright. I go to the Penitentiary the first Sunday in each month and preach to the prisoners.

The work of this Mission of Christ Church, both in the chapel and school, has been since the first of November last in the charge of the Rev. R. L. Bame.

The Holy Communion has not been more frequently administered here because Mr. Bame is only in Deacon's Orders, and also because the congregation worshipping in the chapel has the opportunity of receiving the Communion on every Lord's Day at Christ Church at an early service or later in the day.

Mr. John Ward acts as Superintendent of the Sunday School most acceptably and efficiently.

Services have been held at Tillery, in the forenoon once a month, on the first Sunday, and in the afternoon of the same day at Spring Hill. At each place the attendance has somewhat improved. At the last visitation of the Bishop one person was confirmed at Tillery. But from present prospects we cannot expect great things for some time to come. Yet patience, time and truth will certainly, by and by, yield some fruit. The Church every where has much to do, to break down the barriers that ignorance and prejudice set up against her.

This has been a prosperous year in some respects, but the hard times have driven six of our best workers to other parts, and that has greatly hindered us. We are now commanding the respect of the best of the people, and some of them are much in sympathy with us and will be confirmed when the Bishop comes again. On the whole our work is prosperous, though the workers are not so many as a year ago.

The Mission is now clear of debt, and the prospects are encouraging. I regret that I have been compelled to miss several visitations during the year because of my duties at the school. The visitations of the Archdeacon have been appreciated and have proved helpful to the work. Too much cannot be said in commendation of the faithful and efficient services of Mr. Theodore Pollard, who is again in charge of the Mission School. In addition to my duties at St. Augustine's School, I continue to make monthly visits to St. Ambrose Church, Raleigh, and to this Mission at Warrenton.

REPORTS OF ARCHDEACONS.

Archdeacon of Raleigh.

The Rev. John Huske, late Archdeacon of Raleigh, who is absent from the Diocese, reports to the Bishop for the quarter ending April 1 as follows:

Sunday Services: Louisburg 10, Smithfield 6, Williamsboro 2, Cary, Lawrence and Raleigh, each 1. Week-day Services: 6 days' Mission at Cary; services with sermons or addresses at Durham, Tarboro, Wilson, Rocky Mount and Lawrence.

Archdeacon of Charlotte.

To the Right Rev. Joseph Blount Cheshire, D.D.,

Bishop of North Carolina.

I respectfully submit the following report of my official acts as Archdeacon of the Convocation of Charlotte for the year ending April 30th, 1902:

Having had charge of St. Paul's Mission, Monroe, I have visited the congregation some fifteen times during the year, held twenty-five services, preached and lectured twenty-five times, celebrated Holy Communion fifteen times, and baptized one infant.

Visited Mount Mourne, Iredell County, once, held service, preached, celebrated the Holy Communion, and baptized one infant.

Visited Thomasville twice, preached twice, and celebrated the Holy Communion once.

Attended the Diocesan Convention in Durham, and assisted in holding three services.

Visited the congregation in Seversville near Charlotte five times, held three services including a burial, preached twice, and celebrated the Holy Communion twice.

Visited St. Martin's Chapel, Charlotte, once, held Evening Prayer, and preached.

Visited All Souls' Mission, Ansonville, held two services, preached twice, and celebrated the Holy Communion. I afterwards took charge of this Mission by the direction of the Bishop in December visiting it once a month regularly until the middle of April, during which time I held thirteen services, preached, and lectured thirteen times, and celebrated Holy Communion five times.

Visited Rockingham three times, As there is no heating apparatus in the church building, no services were held; but I visited all the members of the congregation once, and some of them twice.

Visited Hamlet three times, There is no house of worship here belonging to us, so I held no services here, but visited all the members of the Church in the village once and some of them twice.

Visited Laurinburg once. We have no church building at this place and only three members there.

Visited Laurel Hill three times, held six services, preached six times, and celebrated the Holy Communion three times.

Visited St. Timothy's Mission, Union County, five times, held seven services, preached five times, celebrated Holy Communion three times, and baptized three persons.

Attended a meeting of the Convocation in Salisbury, the Bishop presiding, and celebrated the Holy Communion.

Visited St. Matthew's Mission, Rowan County, three times, assisted in services, preached seven times, and administered the Holy Communion twice in public, and once in private.

Visited St. Jude's Mission, Rowan County, once, assisted in five services, preached five times, and celebrated the Holy Communion once.

Visited Mocksville twice, held service, and preached once.

Visited Hurtsville twice, preached five times, and celebrated the Holy Communion once.

Visited Walnut Cove twice, held five services, preached five times, and celebrated the Holy Communion twice.

Visited Germanton twice, held two services, and preached twice.

Visited Madison once. Visited the house of Mr. Charles R. Wall near Madison, held two services in a Methodist house of worship, preached twice, and baptized a child.

Visited Mount Airy once, held two services, and preached twice.

Visited Elkin once, held two services, and preached twice.

Visited St. Mark's Church, Mecklenburg County, four times, held two services, preached twice, celebrated Holy Communion twice, and held one funeral service.

Visited St. George's Chapel, Woodleaf, Rowan County, three times, held three services, assisted in four others, preached seven times, and celebrated the Holy Communion twice.

Visited Christ Church, Cleveland County, twice, held two services, assisted in seven others, preached eight times, and celebrated the Holy Communion twice in public, and once in private.

Visited Reidsville twice, held two services, preached twice, celebrated Holy Communion once, and celebrated two burial services. While at Reidsville, I made a canvass of the congregation to procure funds with which to complete the church building.

Visited Cuninghams Chapel, and the Church at Milton, each once, held one service, and preached once at each place, and celebrated the Holy Communion in the former.

Visited the church at Leaksville, held five services, preached five times, and celebrated Holy Communion once.

Visited the church at High Point four times, held eight services, preached and lectured eight times, and celebrated the Holy Communion three times.

Visited Mayodan, held one service, and preached once.

Went twice to Statesville, held four services, preached four times, and celebrated Holy Communion twice.

Went twice to St. James' Church, Iredell County, held services, preached twice, and celebrated Holy Communion once.

Took part in three services in St. Peter's Church, Charlotte, and baptized an infant.

Went to Albemarle, held one service, and preached once.

Went to Burlington, held two services, and preached twice.

Assisted in two services in St. Paul's Church, Winston, preached once, and celebrated the Holy Communion once during the District meeting at that place.

Held one service in the Chapel of Hope, Gingham Mills, Charlotte, preached, and baptized five children.

Went twice to Cooleemee Mills, held four services, and preached once.

Visited Wadesboro, and held two services, and preached twice.

Held two services at the Thompson Orphanage.

Attended meeting of the Convocation of Charlotte at Greensboro, in St. Barnabas' Church, celebrated the Holy Communion, and took part in several services during its continuance.

SUMMARY.

Attended two meetings of the Executive Missionary Committee in Raleigh; two meetings of the Convocation of Charlotte; held six District meetings; held or took part in one hundred and fifty public services; celebrated the Holy Communion fifty-seven times; baptized eleven persons; held four funeral services; and conducted four Missions.

The Archdeacon has endeavored to put into practical operation the Canon in regard to the holding of quarterly meetings in the various Districts in the Convocation, and he feels warranted in stating that in his opinion there are great possibilities for good to the Church in this system, if the provisions of this Canon are carried out faithfully by all whose duty it is to co-operate in the matter. The quarterly reports required of Ministers and Treasurers of congregations serve as constant reminders to all concerned that there are duties and obligations devolving upon them which we are all too much disposed to postpone and neglect, to the great detriment of the Church and of our own souls.

The quarterly meetings in the different districts serve to bring our people together and afford opportunities of information and enlightenment upon many important and interesting topics, and develop much latent power and interest that would otherwise remain unimproved. These quarterly meetings are calculated to be of special importance and value in aiding and encouraging the work of the Woman's Auxiliary, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, Daughters of the King, and Sunday Schools in small congregations.

The Mission Schools, of which there are three in the Convocation, are doing good and efficient mission work. In fact, there can be no more useful and effective instrumentality for the Church and society than these schools; and it is a fact, greatly to be deplored, that in this enlightened and progressive age the people of the Church are so slow in providing the means of support and offering themselves for the carrying on of a work that offers such a harvest of souls and material growth for so small an outlay of money and human effort. It requires no supernatural vision to perceive what incalculable benefits would most likely result from maintaining for a few generations even a score of Mission Schools in the Diocese. If a fund could be created to guarantee a mere support, no doubt a number of faithful and devoted women could be found willing to consecrate their lives to this noble work.

The Archdeacon calls attention to the great need of adequate support for our Missionaries in the Convocation of Charlotte. These men are devoting their lives to the work committed to them, and they are not being properly supported. It is a great hardship to them, and we appeal to the members of the Church to remedy the matter.

There is also great need of more Missionaries in this field. We need at least five more men to develop and improve the ground now occupied, and three more to take charge of and improve as many other most promising and inviting places which would probably become in a measure self-supporting in a few years. As we are now situated a few men are trying to keep alive the work in a field large enough for more than twice their number.

I have received from various sources within the Convocation during the year the sum of $602.40, and have paid out for traveling expenses, stationery, printing, postage, etc., $193.80 and have accounted with the Treasurer for the same.

E. A. OSBORNE,
Archdeacon.

Archdeacon for work among Colored People.

To the Rt. Rev. Joseph Blount Cheshire, D.D., Bishop of North Carolina.

MY DEAR BISHOP: In making another annual report of the work done among the colored people, I am glad to say that, for the most part, we have been encouraged by many evidences of substantial progress. The following statement of facts will indicate the individual acts of the Archdeacon for this department during the year:

Celebrations of the Holy Communion 28; services 152; sermons 57; addresses 80; baptisms 17; burials 1; schools visited 53, and miles traveled 4,544, not including the trips out of the Diocese.

The contributions from the Churches and Missions amounted to $2,331.83. This is less than last year by about $140, but this is accounted for by the absence of the Archdeacon from the Diocese for two months and the small attendance in some of the Missions during the winter on account of the severity of the weather.

During the months of July and August, 1901, I was absent from the Diocese, under the direction of the Commission for Church Work Among the Colored People, having been appointed to place before Churchmen in a number of places, including Providence, R. I.; Bar Harbor, Maine; Newport, R. I.; Atlantic City, Long Branch and Cape May, the work and its needs.

I am under many obligations to the Rectors of the Churches visited for their kindness and ready co-operation in many ways to make the trip a financial success.

At the same time I had an excellent opportunity of studying the condition of the negroes in the North and with all the boasted advantages of that section, I saw nothing to change my firm conviction of twenty years' standing that, after all, the South is the place for the negro. and the country, not the towns and cities. To-day the negroes in the country, though deprived of many advantages offered others living in the towns and cities, especially the education of their children, are still a better people in every way. They have accumulated more property, live in better houses, are purer in their lives and superior in morals. They are more independent in character as men and women, and represent all that is best in an uncultured people. The Missions are learning to depend more and more upon themselves, and are meeting their current expenses, and it is to be hoped that at no distant day some of them will undertake to meet the larger part, if not all, of the Missionary's salary. Just here, with your consent, I am urging all the Missions to assist me in raising $150 of the apportionment to this Diocese, made by the Board of Managers, and from present indications, I believe that it will be done before September next. This will help to teach the people that they are an inseparable part of the Church, and as such must learn to bear her burdens as well as rejoice in her glorious services and wonderful achievements for the children of men.

We have in our ten schools, including St. Augustine's, more than one thousand children under the instruction and influence of the Church for eight months in the year. It is our earnest desire to widen the scope of the work in this direction, and while a campaign of education is being pushed in the State, such as was never before contemplated in the history of the country, we wish to urge upon Churchmen, both within and without the Diocese, to aid us in establishing and equipping a larger number of Parish Schools where the wholesome and stimulating influences of the Church may be brought to bear upon a larger number of the 300,000 and more negroes in our Diocese. These people have souls to save, and the Church must go after and find them and bring them home. Neither the State nor the Church can be safe in the hands of ignorant people, and to remove the cloud of ignorance now hanging over this large class of our population, and at the same time fill them with gospel truth, is the duty of the Church of God. We are simply instruments in His hands for the fulfilment of the divine commission, "Go, preach the gospel to every creature."

The establishment of a Parish School in a community is a better means of laying a good foundation for future Church work and the uplifting of the race than simply preaching occasionally and then leaving the people to follow their own devices. There is enough preaching of that sort outside of the Church. The great need of the times is wholesome instruction how to live purer and better lives, and that goes hand in hand with the Parish Schools. Every such School makes a better community and indirectly brings about a change in all the people in and around that section. Well equipped Parish Schools open a pathway for the Church which cannot be closed. But no real and substantial success can be achieved, until some permanent arrangements can be made for regular and systematic work under competent teachers.

One incident of such rare occurrence took place in Warren County, that I must make mention of it. Among the most earnest and zealous Churchmen of the Diocese is William P. Russell, the founder of St. Luke's Chapel, Warren County. All the members of the family are godly Christian men and women and loyal to the Church. Belle Russell one of the daughters, a most industrious young woman, having aided her father, by working in the North for several years, in building a comfortable home, having given an organ to the Mission and then saving about $200, requested me to attend her marriage on the 4th of December last. Having an engagement in Detroit, Michigan, about the time I urged her to accept a substitute in the person of one of my clerical associates. This she refused, saying that the Archdeacon must serve her. I made her a faithful promise that I would, and put myself to great disadvantage and some expense to serve her.

On the second of December at 5 P. M. I was in Detroit, and, notwithstanding the railroad officials said the trip could not be made, it was made. Taking the cars for Washington, I reached Norlina 2:30 A. M. Wednesday, and, to remove all uncertainty, took a buggy and arrived at the house about 5 A. M. It was a very dark night. On knocking at the door, the mother responded and appeared to be so unusually sad and dejected, that I asked, What is the matter? but she simply said, "Walk in." I did so, and found Belle's clothing had taken fire the evening before, after getting everything ready for the marriage, and she was fatally burned. She died at 3 P. M., the hour set for the marriage, and I attended a burial, instead of a wedding!

There is a great desire in many parts of the Diocese for the services of the Church. Multitudes are breaking away from their old moorings and becoming either indifferent to the whole question of religion or seeking a more intelligent and satisfactory form of worship. This is the opportunity of the Church, and hundreds are awaiting our answer. Let us come up with the Lord against the mighty, and plant the old banner on every hill-top, and sound the praises of the Church throughout the Diocese, and let all the people praise our God and rest in his love.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. M. POLLARD,
Archdeacon.

TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF ST. PETER'S HOS-PITAL, CHARLOTTE, N. C., 1901.

St. Peter's Hospital reports that 225 patients were received in 1901—males 123, females 102, for 4,330 days' treatment. Of this number, 70 were charity cases for 1,721 days.

The patients were registered as follows: from Charlotte 120, other parts of North Carolina 73, other States 32.

Church connections were: Methodist 87, Presbyterian 56, Baptist 41, Episcopal 30, Roman Catholic 14, Lutheran 4, A. R. Presbyterian 1, no Church 22.

The financial statement is as follows:

Cash balance from 1900.....	$ 61.54
Received during 1901.....	5,136.19
Total.....	$5,197.73
Expenses in 1901.....	$5,129.64
Balance to 1902.....	$ 68.09

The work of the Hospital has prospered during the past year, and has attained a high degree of efficiency under the management of the Superintendent, Miss Koon, and the skilful treatment and oversight of the physicians in charge, Dr. E. C. Register and Dr. G. W. Pressly.

It has maintained a training school of twelve nurses, who are carefully instructed, and who have proved themselves capable, trustworthy and efficient, both in the Hospital and when sent out on private duty.

The house has been painted outside, and an expensive stone wall built to guard the lot from the hill beside it. And the constant small repairs necessary to keep the house in good order have all been met.

The Managers tender sincere thanks to the many friends who have aided this work during the past year, and ask them to continue their interest and sympathy, remembering that in extending its scope, the Hospital always needs help.

MRS. T. B. GAUTIER, President.

MRS. JOHN WILKES, Secretary and Treasurer.

For the Board of Managers.

TENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL FOR COLORED PEOPLE, CHARLOTTE, N. C., 1901.

The Good Samaritan Hospital reports about the same number of patients as last year, but for a greater number of days.

Patients 107, for 1,464 days; males 65, females 42. From Charlotte 54, other parts of North Carolina 40, South Carolina 13.

The Hospital has been kept in excellent order under its efficient Matron and Nurse, Mrs. Buchanan. Drs. Strong and Mills have been in charge, and have been very successful in treating the cases.

Twenty-three physicians have attended patients in the Hospital, and all seem well satisfied with the institution.

The year 1901 closed with the Hospital free from debt, but this was the result of constant solicitation. The subscribers number only 35, and one-half of the donations and subscriptions are given by friends at the North.

Of the 107 patients, 81 were charity cases. For 26 cases for 408 days, $367.75 was paid.

St. Michael's School and the colored Graded School of Charlotte gave generously of provisions on Thanksgiving Day.

The addition to the Hospital for which a sum has been given has been delayed; but work is to begin on it immediately. $1,500 is still needed for finishing and furnishing the Operating Room and Maternity Ward.

The financial statement is as follows:

Balance from 1900	$ 99.76
Received in 1901	1,261.84
	<hr/>
Total cash	$1,361.60
Expenses in 1901	$1,331.37
Balance in 1901	$ 30.23

Several branches of the Woman's Auxiliary have sent household supplies, so our storeroom is kept well supplied with sheets and other necessities.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. JOHN WILKES, President and Treasurer.

MRS. R. LOCKWOOD JONES, Secretary,

For the Board of Managers.

SUPPLEMENTARY.—On page 49 should be noted the following minute of proceedings:

The Rev. E. A. Osborne nominated as members of the Executive Missionary Committee, the Rev. F. J. Murdoch, D.D., the Rev. Walter J. Smith, the Rev. S. S. Bost, the Rev. E. W. Gamble, Mr. John Wilkes, Mr. W. L. London, Mr. R. H. Battle, Mr. Wm. A. Smith and Mr. John W. Graham.

On motion, the Secretary was instructed to cast the vote of the Convention, and they were declared elected.
